

Tamara "Tammy" Decker

March 12, 1959 ~ December 2, 2024

Tamara "Tammy" Decker was born on March 12, 1959 in Huntington Park, California. She came into this world ambitious and full of life. Always doing, always moving. If there was action, she wanted to be right in the middle. In school, she loved to sing, dance and act in many plays. She was also in gymnastics and a cheerleader in high school. She met Kerry Robinson at the age of 16 in the summer of 1975 and they were married on January 3, 1976.

She graduated from Salt Lake Community College in 1991, and received her Barbering and Cosmetology degree.

They had their first child, Miranda Robinson on Dec. 28 1982. Their second child, Carson Robinson, was born on Dec. 28, 1987. Their third child, Colton Robinson was born on March 11, 1992.

Tammy loved music. Wherever she was, the music was on. One of her favorite things to do was drive and sing along to the radio.

She had a passion for life and loved being outside no matter where she was. Watching the sun rise and set. Watching the clouds roll by to point out all of the shapes and characters. Listening to the waves roll up on the ocean. Sitting in the woods just to hear the sounds of nature.

Tammy loved road trips and wanted to see the world. Often she would take the "short cut," but her children knew it was the scenic route. So they nicknamed them the "Tamara short cuts." Short cuts always added adventure, and they enjoyed them as much as she did.

She lived in many towns and cities around the West, including California, Utah, Arizona, Colorado, and Nevada. She was always quick to make friends and everyone always remembered her and her fun personality. She knew how to have fun in any situation.

She met her second husband Warren Decker while living in Pagosa Springs, Colorado. They were married on October 10, 1997.

Her and her children moved back to Utah in 1998. She spent her later years caring for the elderly as an in-home caregiver. She enjoyed assisting those as they aged and enjoyed the many conversations and relationships she gained.

Tammy is survived by her children Miranda Robinson and Colton Robinson; and preceded in death by her son Carson Robinson, father Gilbert Cook, and mother Jerry Cook.
