

Thomas "Mad Dog" Williams

January 13, 1950 ~ March 5, 2022

Captain Thomas “Mad Dog” R. Williams January 13, 1950 ~ March 5, 2022 died in Salt Lake City, Utah, surrounded by his family.

Tom was born to Richard and Theresa Williams in Highland Park, MI. He graduated from Michigan State University in 1972 and joined the U.S. Navy. He graduated from BUD/S on October 31, 1975. During his 31 years of service, he was the Commanding Officer of Seal Team Two, the Commodore of Naval Special Warfare Group 2, and served as the Navy Seal Liaison Officer to the Joint Special Operations Command. He then retired and became “Paw”. He continued to work as a private contractor up until days prior to his death.

Tom was a very humble man who lived to take care of his family and friends. His personal integrity in his personal and professional life was second to none. He enjoyed reading, mountain biking, cross country skiing, canoeing, and taking long hikes in Yellow Fork Canyon with his favorite dog, Steamboat. Tom truly lived a life of love for God and country. He was a faithful Catholic, a loving husband, a dependable father, and a joyful grandfather.

Tom is survived by his wife, Terri, of 36 years, his step-mother; Joanne, his siblings; Connie and Rick, his children; Salli and Greg, daughter in law; Dulce, his grandsons; Colby, Victor, and Mateo, and his nephew; Chris. He was preceded in death by his parents, nephew, Justin, and grandson, Tomas.

Funeral services will be Friday, March 18, 2022 at 2:00 pm at Larkin Sunset Gardens located at 1950 East 10600 South, Sandy UT 84092. An interment will follow the service, as well as, a reception.
