Dianna Myers Wall

July 12, 1957 ~ December 5, 2017

Dianna died at the age of 60 on December 5, 2017 after a courageous battle with breast cancer. She was born on July 12, 1957 to James Levi and Juddith Ann Cameron Myers. She spent her childhood in West Valley City, UT and graduated from Granger High School in 1975.

At the age of 18, Dianna married trouble maker and love of her life Pat Wall. This began a relationship that would last over 40 years and include raising 3 children. Dianna enjoyed yard work, crafting, daytime soap operas and family vacations. She had a passion for decorating her home and yard for every holiday. She has left us with so many themed decorations, we may just open our own store. She made friends with anyone and often did by talking to strangers in checkout lines, while out shopping or at the gas station. She was a wonderful cook and we will miss her famous potato salad and incredible chocolate cake.

Dianna was known to her friends and family for her outgoing and colorful personality, her kindness and her warmth. Her laugh was infectious and her smile lighted up the room. While serving on the PTA board at Bingham High, she earned the nickname "Pitbull" for her don't mess with me attitude.

She was proud of her family whom she considered her greatest accomplishment. She loved snowmobiling in Yellowstone and deer hunting every year in the mountains of Utah. Dianna was fearless and said that if you start something, you finish it.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on December 16, 2017 at Larkin Sunset Gardens, 1950 East Dimple Dell Road (10600 South) in Sandy. A viewing will be held Friday evening from 6-8 p.m. and Saturday morning from 9:30-10:30 a.m. prior to the services.

You will be greatly missed. We love you. Always and forever.
