She married her sweetheart Dewey Voy Taylor on August 20, 1953 in the Salt Lake Temple. They were devoted to each other for over 70 years. She was raised in a strong family environment and had great love for her siblings; Grace Florence, Harold Dean, Boyd White, Dallas Henry, LaFonda, and Wendell Ray.

Vivian's priority in life was loving and serving her family. She loved and raised her seven children and also provided a loving daycare for many of her grandchildren. She loved the Lord and had a strong testimony of the gospel of Jesus Christ. She served in many church callings. She enjoyed interior decorating and had a great talent for it. She was an amazing seamstress. She made school clothes and prom dresses and her daughters' wedding dresses. She found an outlet for her love of clothing design by creating and sewing barbie doll clothes. She was also an avid quilter and made quilts for all of the family members and many others.

Vivian had many health challenges in her life, but she always kept a smile on her face. Her focus was always on loving and serving her family even during her trials. She was the center of our family and will be deeply missed.
