

Charles John Snowden Sr.

May 2, 1945 ~ Dec. 30, 2020

Snowden family So sorry to hear of your father's passing. What an amazing and inspiring, motivational, committed, funny, boisterous, compassionate character he was. when I say character I mean that as we all know Chuck Senior could bring of room Of grown men to its knees with laughter and smiles. I remember him often hanging out with "his crew" at alfalfas market in the café, with his shorts pulled on over his sweat pants. I hear them all laughing telling stories and cracking jokes in the corner, once he spotted me he would yell out across a café "hey Lockwood what's up man"? And then want a big hug or a tight grip handshake. Chuck senior was the man!!! My wife Sara remembers him fondly as her Casey junior high school PE teacher. On More than several occasions, for talking in line or in class, he called her out and made her do push-ups. I always laugh when I hear that story. Chuck Senior was "always teaching and always preaching". Loved that man!!! So sorry for your loss he was truly one of a kind We miss the Snowden's in Colorado Scott Lockwood
