

Roxanne Clampitt

November 4, 1953 ~ December 6, 2024

Roxanne Clampitt, born November 4, 1953 in Salt Lake City, passed away at her home on December 6, 2024.

Roxanne was born to Alvin Clampitt and Birdena Hemmert. Roxanne attended college after graduating from high school and received a degree in electronics, as well as in environmental safety and health. Roxanne used to her education throughout her career and retired as a Safety Officer from L-3 Communications after 40 years.

While working Roxanne made it a goal to take a vacation every year to a different place. She would use her income tax return to do this, something she learned from her father. Roxanne went to different places throughout the United States and loved her trip to Australlia.

Roxanne is preceded in death by her father, mother and her brothers (Roger and Allen), as well as her sister (Lorraine).

A visitation will be held Friday December 20, 2024 at 11:00 am at Larkin Mortuary, located at 260 E South Temple in Salt Lake City, Utah. A graveside service will follow at Bountiful City Cemetery, 2224 S 200 W, Bountiful, Utah.
