I have fond memories of our wonderful times at Grace Church. God’s peace and comfort.

Dear Amanda and Toby, I send my heartfelt condolences to you both on the passing of your father. Eddy and I knew your dad and mom as small group leaders alongside Bob and Judy Worrell at Grace Church Edina in the mid 1980s and 1990s. Charlie was always was a kind, fun-loving, positive and can-do person and someone who made no excuse for his love of his Savior. My husband, Eddy passed away on April 13, 2026 not too long after Charlie. Eddy was born on July 21, 1944. Perhaps they found each other quickly as they passed through the pearly gates. I also remember your happy, always-smiling, can-do mother, too. I am sure all three are happily at work in heaven doing the glorious, eternal work they are now called to do.
