How sad I am to hear that Master Cheng Tsang Lu has died. He and Elaine have made such an impact on my life through their health guidance and example of how to live a gracious and generous life. I want to offer my condolences to Tye hou and Bette and Ming Da on the loss of their father who was an icon to many. Master Lu (Chen) is present with me each and every day when I do tai chi

Master Lu had a profound and positive influence on all who met him. He not only taught martial arts but how to reach one’s deepest aspirations. He will be missed.

Dear Family, Oh, my heavens. Just discovering this very sad news. What a great loss! Master Lu had a tremendous impact in my life and the lives of so many more. Our paths crossed at a very important time in my life, and for that I will be eternally grateful for. He was my Acupuncture mentor, and tai chi/qi gong teacher. But more importantly, he was like a father figure to me. To his family, I send heartfelt love and compassion. I pray God's peace be upon you - to fill the great void that was created in loosing Master Lu's great presence here on earth. With warm regards, Julianne Gardner

Dear Elaine & Family. We are so sorry to hear of the loss of Master Lu. Although many years have passed, our experiences together are as alive as ever. The days in Sifu Pettit's studio, those photos in Liberty park, and our brief conversation with him a few years ago. "His is a life well lived! He is much loved, and will be sorely missed by our family and loved ones." These words mean so much. And we will miss him too. We hope warm memories soon can ease the pain of your loss. Take care, jim & Valerie Pissot (I was looking for information on Dale Pettit when I cam across Master Lu's notice. What might you know of him, Elaine?)

- Jim Pissot

I'm saddened to hear of Master Lu's passing. He was my teacher around 1985 and I remember him fondly to this day. The extent of the great influence he had on young people will only truly be revealed in our Eternal Home. May he forever bask in Christ's glory and may His family have peace in knowing that.
