Shauna enjoyed Camping and riding ATVs, with family and friends. Traveling on cruise ships to different destinations, some of which to Alaska, Panama Canal, and the Caribbean. With Garry, the family, and friends, they would travel in the camper and then the motorhome, over the western states, and would spend many weekends on the property at Fairview, Utah.

Family was the center of her life, but also work in ceramics, crafts and gardening also brought her great joy.

Shauna was loved by almost all that she met; she will be missed terribly by all that knew her.
