Aug. 16, 1996 ~ May 4, 2022

Chris was my best friend and my brother. We have been through so many things together and have always had each other backs regardless of the situation. This world is less of a bright place without him. He was the happiest person I ever knew, nothing could keep him down. I always looked up to him for that, amongst many other things. Words could never explain the loss and heartbreak that I feel for him. He will be in my mind and prayers forever. If there is anything I can do for the family and i mean absolutely anything, please don't hesitate to ask. -Tyler Leek

Just looking at this picture breaks my heart, Christian and I bonded with our man to man talks when I would drive him to appointments. We grew close and I enjoyed being his stepdad, I will cherish those moments now forever, rest in peace buddy I will miss you terribly. Justin

Chris, my brother I thought that I'd be the one looking down on you writing this about me. You were taken from us way too soon, but you will never be forgotten. I will always carry your memories with me. Fly high my friend till we meet again.

Lori, I know what it feels like to lose my parents at a young age, but one of my children would be something quite different. My heart breaks for you, and for days now I keep wondering what your going through and how you are doing. I am sure your family is being supportive, and you know FCM is here for you as well. Just know that you are in our thoughts and prayers all they way over in Colorado. I truly wish that you will take the time to heal. As I have learned, we get to think about our loved ones for years, we get to cry and laugh more and more as we go through this life. Time is a blessing, as more of it passes we get to remember all the good things, and the crying goes away, but it does take time...years.
