

Christian Eugene Shingleton

December 13, 1930 ~ December 28, 2023

We've lived in Jeff and Linetta Moyes's (now Tanya Platt's) basement for almost 8 years now and we've had several simple yet enjoyable interactions with our neighbor "Chris", especially as we've taken our kids on walks. Our kids' favorite was when he brought out ice cream treats during the summer. We're grateful to have known him as much as we have and look forward to seeing him and knowing him better someday. He has such a kind and genuine nature. Prayers for all who are going through this loss.

Chris was lovingly known to our family as Gramps. He was a special person in our lives and will be missed greatly. He was supportive of me and my kids through all of our ups and downs with his kindness and generosity and was always concerned that everyone had what they needed. I consider myself lucky that he was part of my life and will forever be grateful. Love you Gramps.

Chris has been such a great friend and influence in the lives of Rob, Michelle, Lindsay, Kailey, and Caden. He continued to be a constant companion with Lindsay, Kailey, Ian, Cody and their children over these last twenty years. He never missed a birthday and lunch invite. He was interested in their sports activities. We were fortunate to have known him - he will be missed. Sending sympathy to his family during this hard time. Kaye Bright
