Christine Fyans Wind

May 23, 1969 ~ April 27, 2025

Oh sweet Chrissy, I have only just learned of your passing because I was telling my friend of you participation in the islet trial that has now led to what looks like the cure for Diabetes and I looked for your participation to show him how glad I was that you where my friend. I am truly devastated by your passing, you where an amazing, kind lady who I considered a good friend, and I am so glad that after years of online friendship we finally got the chance to meet up in Tabarca, Spain, and you took me to your beautiful boutique hotel home, were I also got to see your wonderful pieces of pottery that you'd made. Chrissy, I am so sad that we will never meet again. I am so proud to have know you and I'm so grateful that your time on earth was spent loving and caring for animals and that your contribution to the Islet Cell research has now led to what looks like the cure for Diabetes, I am just gutted that you sadly wasn't saved by this! I will hold you in my heart and mind forever beautiful lady. Sleep well my love. <3 <3 <3 xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx Sending my heartfelt condolences to all of the family and other friends. Amanda <3

- Amanda Cogan Barber