

Christine R. Woolf Oliver

November 22, 1949 ~ April 2, 2022

A toast, to a magnificent lady with my unending love.

- Marty McQuarrie

Christine was a beautiful soul. She loved people and animals and painted them in her amazing portraits. She created other astonishing work too, sometimes a landscape or still life painted over a shimmery gold canvas. Her Art Friends will greatly miss Chris's sweet voice and tender stories. We had fun visiting her at the Natural History Museum where she worked too. She was so helpful when our most senior student, Corinne Sluder became 90 years old. Chris would pick her up and get her back home safely. We send our love to her family whom she loved dearly. Paint the sky and the heavens, Christine! Until we can paint again with you, we send our love and wish you joy! Love, Kendra Burton, Lynn Marion, Shirley Ann Collins, Christine Thompson, Jonnee Frederick, Marian Hunt, Terry Jensen, Lee Parkin, Janice Reaveley, Georgia Bruening, Annette Millet, Karen Detevis and Gunner Hansen.
