It’s been so long since we were roommates and I was getting ready for my mission. I will miss you my friend. I pray your journey home was sweet in the arms of your Savior. May your family be comforted as you dwell with God until we all meet again. Love you!

I went to Nauvoo with her and her sister in 1980 in the same bus. One day we played musical chairs, and I ended up sitting with her. It was near the end of the trip, and we were getting cagey. Then in 1990, I met a guy that is Jared's Ex Brother in Law. I didn't want to bother him with what ward he went to, but I got sick and my sister and a friend went to the dance by themselves and they asked. I started going to the Capitol Hill Third Ward. We started reading Jesus the Christ the spring we started the D&C in Sunday School. It was suggested by the teacher. We got together on Sundays. Then Linda Shumpert was thinking of going on a mission. We had Benon by that time. I wasn't going to stop working for the Government. We also were doing the Wizard of Oz in the Salt Lake Stake. We met LeeAnn Morris and Juanita Smith. Linda moved in with them to save money. Cindy was one of the roommates. I have another celebration of life at the same time and day but in West Valley. I am going to go to that one.

Dear Cindy, I was looking forward to driving up to see you--and then I heard you had "graduated" from this life. I'm sad to not visit with you, but know you're in a better place and likely so much happier. You will always be one of the sisters I never had, and part of our family. With love, Libby

It has been a privilege and a blessing to have Cindy in our family. We love her! She was one of the kindest, most approachable, compassionate, and non-judgmental people we've ever known, and we will be forever grateful for the goodness she brought to us. We miss her, but we are grateful for our knowledge and testimony of the Resurrection, which assures that she is happy now and that we will see her again. We extend our love and sympathy to the whole Stephens family at this sad time.

I was so saddened to hear about Cindy’s passing. Even though I didn’t have the chance to know her deeply, every interaction I had with her showed how kind, warm, and loving she was. She felt like a “sanctuary person” to me -- someone with whom everyone could feel safe and cared for. She was such a blessing to my brother, Jared, and I’m deeply grateful for the warmth and steadiness she brought into his life. With heartfelt condolences, Ryan Harrison
