I have known Clayton for the past 10 years. In that time, Clayton has had a great influence on my life and I have numerous memories with him. Clayton was a great friend to me and I am Extremely grateful for his friendship. I will surely miss all of the laughs, memories, and those innocent high school summer nights. Clayton will forever occupy a place in my life, and his influence will live on. My thoughts and prayers are with the Anderson's at this tragic time. I pray that they will find peace and comfort during this difficult time. Clayton made this world a better place through his Christlike demeanor. I will forever remember how he treated others with the upmost respect and kindness.

My condolences to Jenny and her family for the loss of Tyler, beloved Son and Brother. I do your workouts all the time, you are an inspiration to me. I watched when my parents lost my Brother at age 36 and how they never really healed from that. I hope your family will find peace and will grow closer to each other each and every day.

What a sweet celebration of a wonderful soul. The heartache we feel at losing Clayton and the knowledge of the suffering his family is going through right now are tempered by the feelings of warmth invoked by the goodness of his life and the reality of the hereafter. Tyler, Jenny, and Family: You are in our prayers.

- Chris Killpack

I was so honored to be able to join you for the beautiful service. It was lovely to hear the beautiful stories of what an amazing young man and example he had grown up to be. I am so glad and grateful he had the chance to grow up in such a beautiful home surrounded by people that love him so much. You can tell he truly was the apple of your eyes. It got me thinking about all the people he must have come across in his life and the great joy he must have brought to so many people. To have so much support and understanding from his family must have been a huge help to him. I'm glad that the pain and suffering is over for him and he doesn't have to struggle with this. I truly am so sorry that you didn't have more time with him but I know what time he did, he made beautiful memories with so many people around him that loved him. You are all in my thoughts and prayer Abbey Davison(Armstrong) babysitter in harlow

Dear Family. Please accept our sincere love and appreciation for your son. We love him and know he is okay. He is a great person and missionary. We know this is not easy, but it is not over. This is a plan of happiness but there are bumps in the road of mortality. You have a great son and we were privileged to serve with him in Kentucky. Elder Rasband shared this scripture in Mosiah 2:11 that we have never forgot. The Savior heals all wounds, spiritually, physically, emotionally and mentally. You have a beautiful family and are great parents. Please know you are all in our prayers. Sincerely Dan and Charla Hughes- Kentucky Louisville Mission President Liebe Jenny, mein Beileid an Dich und Deine Familie.. Ich schaue so gerne Deine Fitnessvideos an, weil Du eine so ermunternde, erfrischende Art hast. Du reit mich regelrecht mit. Du hast vollkommen recht, Sport hilft sehr bei psychischen Problemen und noch mehr, wenn eine so bezaubernde Person wie Du dabei bist, wenn auch nur im übertragenen Sinne. Mach bitte weiter so, Du hilfst vielen Menschen..

I would like to extend my deepest condolences... Clayton was a good friend of mine and I never truly knew the struggles he faced on a daily. Clayton made a significant impact on my life in many ways, I will never forget the fun experiences we had during scout camp or young men activities. Clayton was not only a good friend but also a absolute stand up guy who really knew how to brighten up the day of those around him. He will be deeply missed and my heart goes out to the Anderson's. Dear Ford Family, I am so very sorry for the loss of your son/brother Clayton. I lost my 22 year old son 5 years ago and it was the hardest thing I have ever experienced. It feels like a part of your heart is missing after that but I've found that you just can't feel it with all of the emotions that you are going through. Slowly you'll begin to see that it is still right there with Clayton safely tucked inside. You'll always feel that loss but when the time is right you'll start to remember wonderful times along with the loss and you'll find yourself smiling at them. Not every thought will be painful. The pain eases and makes room for joy. Just remember to keep talking to each other and sharing your thoughts and your love and you won't ever be alone. You'll all experience this differently and at your own pace but you'll go through it together and be able to support each other. I wish you all the very best and send my warm thoughts to you at this time. Jenny, you helped me so much when I was going through this, I hope a good word will help you just a little in return.
