

Clayton Gail Stout

December 27, 1942 ~ April 22, 2024

So sorry Jared about your loss. He’s he’s just in a better place and he’s giving you the world of good advice. I can tell because you’re such a good man. Still appreciate all that you did for my son during his hard times. You’re a wonderful person. Thank you.

Our life has been greatly enriched by having Gail Stout in our lives. He will always be my “Big Brother”, and will continue to be reminded of What would Gail do? We know he is having a great reunion with Nana and Bumps, and retelling all those jokes and funny stories that he could always remember. Love you Bro…till we meet again! And don’t forget to pet our blue cat for me!

Gail has always been an outstanding friend and relative. Ever since marrying Jane, Beverly"s older sister, he has been part of my life. We have spent numerous times talking together and enjoying a frequent laugh. I will always remember how uncomplaining he was even though he endured constant pain in his last years. He is a great example of courage, faith and kindness. Gail and Bev's children and Jane and my children have developed deep and enduring friendships. I will have a void in my heart until we are able to meet again. All my love goes out to Beverly and the family.

Dear Sister Stout & Family. We were saddened to hear of Gail's passing. We enjoyed serving with you in the Palmyra Temple and sharing time with you at our reunions. We felt such a loving and great spirit from both of you. It was good to learn more about your lives in the obituary. Love & Blessings. D&C 42:45-46.

I will always remember the little "fair-haired" boy that greeted me from the time I entered the Stout household! I was his little shadow and followed him everywhere! I wanted to be just like my big brother! He even shared his favorite log truck with me, complete with the chains (which I used as my necklace!) I remember crying my eyes out when he went to school and he didn't take me with him! I was so proud as I watched him play the piano with such power and expression. He was amazing! Bob and I have cherished the years spent with him and Beverly. We especially enjoyed our 3-day reunion spent at Mike and Jenny's cabin in Mt. Pleasant. There, with Gail and Bev, Gary and Jo, Bob and I, we reminisced, laughed, and attended the Manti Temple, where we had all been sealed. We also visited the Pederson family home and Snow College. This beautiful valley setting brought back so many wonderful memories for all of us! We already are missing Gail so very much, but realize the beautiful Plan of Salvation that will find us all together once again. Until that day, our memories together will grow sweeter! We send our love to you, Beverly, who is the love of Gail's life, and to each of your precious children. Love, Bob and Janis
