I am so sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to your family.

- Kristine Larsen

My darling son Clint, your mom is going to miss you so very much. My heart is broken but I know someday I will see you again. The day you came to visit you were so good looking and healthy looking. Your demise was so unexpected. Your wings were ready but my heart wasn't. I want you to know that I love you so very very much and you'll always be in my heart & mind. Love mom

I'm so sorry for your loss. Clint you were such an amazing person. You could always make me laugh with your stupid jokes and just being set in your "old man forman" ways as you called yourself. You were such a big part of my life and I will always cherish those memories. I hope Murtaugh and my Gus Gus were there to welcome you. You will always be missed Clint.

- Katie Talbot Parry

May you find the peace and happiness we all seek Clint. You were a good friend, funny, brought a smile to peoples faces who knew you. You will be missed but not forgotten.

- Frank Shipman

Oh Clint (“neighbor” as we’d call each other) I am so sad to hear of your passing. I have many fun memories of you, me, and Xiaz. Watching weekly Monday night WWE smack downs and you imitating the “Rock”, blaring Limp Bizkit and Tool while cruising the neighborhoods, going to the movies and you yelling “Steeeellllaaaa!” laughing until I couldn’t breathe and many more memories with everyone! May you Rest In Peace and my condolences to your family.

My big sister ❤ my heart goes out to you. I really didn't know your son, my nephew. I remember our mother used to brag about him singing " the sun will come out tomorrow bet your bottom dollar, etc. Our mother is with him. Clint you were always loved. You were a good man.

Clint, it was hard for me to hear about your departure. I'm sorry for not being there to be a part of your life. My memories of you are from your Grandmother. Estella ,About how you used to sing to her (the sun will come out tomorrow bet your bottom dollar) thats all I remember her telling me. Grandmother Estella loved you dearly. I know you are with all who loves you. Rest in peace. My nephew ■
