Elizabeth Ann Wagstaff Tucker-Kyriopoulos

June 6, 1937 ~ February 11, 2017

Our loving mother, Elizabeth, was born into this world June 6, 1937 to William R. and Mabel Wagstaff. She left us on February 11, 2017. Elizabeth married her sweetheart, Lloyd T. Tucker in November of 1956. Together they had six children. Elizabeth took care of Lloyd while he struggled with his fate of cancer. Several years later, she found love again and married Thomas L. Kyriopoulos, who accepted her six children as his own. Our mother was a classy lady; always dressed to the nines. She never left the house without makeup, jewelry and perfume. She enjoyed movies, art, Utah football games, culture, reading, traveling; particularly Wendover and Las Vegas. Most of all, she enjoyed spending time with her four grandchildren. Our mother/grandmother was extremely generous, selfless and always taking care of others. Elizabeth was constantly helping those in need; and available to not only her friends and family, but anyone she felt that she could make an impact in their life. Mom/Grandma, was our biggest cheerleader, she supported us on anything we chose to do throughout our lives.

We love you Mom/Grandma, every time we see a bright shining star in the sky, we will think of your beautiful blue eyes shining down upon us.

Survived by: Marianne (Kevin) Fenn, Scott (Jane) Tucker, Sherry Tucker and Eddie Dreske, Christopher (Lynn) Tucker, Angela Nielsen and Patrick Tucker. Her four grandchildren, Lindsey, Alec, Avery and Samuel. Her brother David (Patsy) Wagstaff.

Preceded in death by her parents, her two sweethearts, Lloyd Tucker and Thomas Kyriopoulos; her son-in-law Dennis Nielsen and daughter-in-law LeeAnn Tucker.

Special thanks to the friends and staff at The Wellington, Hospice For Utah and our dear friend Bette.

Elizabeth knows who her savior is, she is rejoicing with him now.
