

Craig Max Sauer

September 10, 1957 ~ March 1, 2025

I would like to offer my condolences to your family. My prayers and thoughts are with you. I had the opportunity to serve with Craig for 5 months in Hillerød, Denmark. He was such a great example to me. I will forever be thankful for his Christlike service to me as a missionary. RIP Ældste Sauer til we meet again.

When my husband Ray died, Craig made it a point to occasionally text me jokes and give me a smile. He was just kind and thoughtful like that. Here are some of his jokes: I'm thinking about sewing my jokes onto sweaters, I think people will really enjoy my knit wits. ■ Ya know... I was just thinking about parallel lines They have so much in common, it's a shame they'll never meet. ■■■ Who hides Easter eggs that they never want you to find? The Dust Bunny Say, what do witches use for research? Wicked pedia. ■ What's the hardest part of having an ant as a pet? Putting the leash on, duh. Why did the man quit his job recycling shoes? It was sole crushing. Thank you Craig for bringing a bit of sunshine to my dark days. Roxanne I am so sorry for your loss. Oh how Craig loves you! You have always been his angel and now he is yours as well. Thank you for your kindness to me in my grief. I am sending the same comfort and peace to you. God bless you.

Craig has been a friend for many years. We both taught at Myotherapy and shared a deeply common love of massage therapy. I will miss his yearly “Happy Birthday”, as our birthdays were close as was our age. He was truly, everyone’s friend and will be missed. Thank you Craig for our friendship. My condolences to his family.

Craig was such an amazing person. He was so kind, caring, and thoughtful. He hired me for the front desk when I was pregnant and was so thoughtful that as my due date got closer he would call to check in with me everytime I worked. It meant the world that he cared so much and showed such concern on my behalf. Craig will be missed dearly and he has touched my heart beyond words can describe. I am so honored to have had the opportunity to get to know him may he forever live in our hearts.

I am saddened to hear of the loss of Craig. I met him in 1999, as a freshman divorced, broken female. I relocated to Utah and found myself studying massage therapy under his guidance. I loved every second of it. His stories, jokes, knowledge, everything. He saved me from my depression. He had a gift of healing the body and the soul. Thank you, Craig.

Craig was such an amazing customer at Shirlyns. I always enjoyed when He & has Wife came in. Craig was so knowledgeable about health & massage. I loved hearing his stories of success with massage & his clients. He also had a great knowledge of herbs & loved helping people. I will miss him.

I'm late to this news. And I am heartbroken. I graduated from Provo College with an education and passion for massage therapy based on Craig and his limitless knowledge. And kindness. I remember sitting in his office while he told me he could offer some father-like support since I grew up without any. I finally, after nearly 20 years, opened my own massage practice and wanted so badly to tell him. I hope he can see, and I hope he's proud.
