Dear Phil and Family: Cindy was such a beautiful woman physically, mentally and spiritually. I know how much you, Phil, the children, the grandchildren, her Mom and her siblings are missing her already. I can imagine letting her go and wanting her to stay were equally painful for you and for Cindy. Keep this photo close by to help remember the good times and block out the not so good times. My family and I will miss her too. Our Love to all of you. Aunt Jeanette, Tammy, Sandra, Barbara and Marsha.

We will miss our wonderful friend Cindy dearly. She was always so gracious and kind to us. May the family find comfort in your pleasant memories of Cindy and in the grace of our loving Savior Jesus Christ who has welcomed her back to a heavenly reunion. God be with you till we meet again dear Cindy. The Hemingways

I will always remember Cindy at WJPD with a smile on her face and her desire to help everyone and bring a better day to their lives. She always went out of her way to fill the need, whatever that might be. I certainly hope there will be a bowl of Halloween candy at her celebration? I knew I could always walk by her office door and find something chocolate ready 24-7. I know she is watching over her families personal and professional. Very sincerely, Dave Block

We were so blessed to have Cindy and Phil as neighbors for so many years and to watch our children grow up together. Our love goes out to Phil and family and we know that the knowledge you have of where she is now along with our Savior atoning love will give you comfort and peace until we are all reunited beyond the veil. What a wonderful example Cindy is of Christlike love.

So grateful when you moved next door in 1976. 16 years of the best neighbors ever! Our first three kids shared friendships as well. You were like their second parents. We have many sweet memories! The younger three girls loved to go to Party Makers to see Cindy and get a balloon. We all loved it when Cindy would put her arms around us and she truly loved us. Cindy and Phil, you two are the essence of what President Russell M. Nelson has been teaching us; to be kind and accepting of all of God's children. You two have been a blessing to everyone and we can't even imagine the ripple effect that has happened because of your love and service to others. I am sure the ripples have found their way back to you. We love you guys...■♥■♥■♥■

I've had the distinct pleasure of being a family friend of the Jacobsons she always treated me with warmth and a welcome heart throughout the years that I had been acquainted with her. I came to find that she was a very loving mother to her children and to her grandchildren. My best friend who is her son-in-law was always able to count on having a warm mother-son relationship. And she raised an awesome strong daughter (April) who's always there to help someone if they need it. Sending love, good vibes and best of blessings.

Such a great lady!! Served together in church callings and loved her for all her support in everything. Phil and family, you of course know how much she loves you. We know it's going to be a difficult time for all of you, but you'll have her support no matter where or when.

I met Cindy through my husband David as he worked for her as a crossing guard. Cindy was our wedding planner that made our wedding so memorable and amazing thanks for all you did. I later went to work as a crossing guard and she was my supervisor. I would love coming to meetings because it was always an eventful time with her many different costumes she would wear for fun and inspirational sayings she would put on our paperwork. She always had us laughing and made work fun. She will be missed dearly, we love you Cindy. Until we meet again ♥■
