

Cynthia Christiansen Pace

April 14, 1951 ~ September 10, 2023

---

Cynthia was such a jovial person, in her younger days. She brought a lot of joy. The world seems more empty, without her in it.

- Victoria Pace

---

To Loyal and your family we sent our love and condolences in your sorrow of Cynthia's passing. The gospel and the promises of the resurrection bring sweet feelings knowing that families are forever. Our lives are better because our paths crossed both of yours during the journey we all life.

- Roger Millar

---

We love Cynthia so much! I always remember she was the pie lady at Thanksgiving and brought so many pies. She was so delightful to visit with and was just an angel. So grateful for Cynthia.

- Katie Maudsley

---

Cynthia saved my life when I was doing a play and had no one for costuming. She was terrific! And, by the way. loyal was the best, by far, anesthesiologist I have ever had! Loved them! ■■■■

- Tonia Jensen

---

Cynthia and a Loyal were the first neighbors we met when we moved to the Avenues. They have been so loving and friendly ever since that first meeting. Cynthia was always such a warm person and we will miss her. Our Love and thoughts are with the Pace family, Rest in peace our dear friend.

- Dennis and Leanne

---

We loved being neighbors to Loyal, Cynthia, and family. Cynthia was always so positive and saw the good in everyone. She was generous with her time and talents. We love this truly great lady.

- John and Christine Norman

---

Loyal We send our sincere condolences to you and your family. Cynthia was a pleasant person to be around. All of us at the class reunion were sad you both could not join us'. May God bless you and your family today and always.
Craig and Margaret

- Craig and Margaret Vernon

---

Loyal and Cynthia came into my life when our children, Spencer and Nicole, wed. Cynthia was always so friendly and kind. This temporary separation will be difficult for all those who love her. She's led an exemplary life and I'm sure her rewards are great!

- Greg Donovan

---

Loyal and kids. Evan and I were so sad to hear about Cynthia's passing. We loved her and appreciated her skills and talents the entire time we lived in the ward. Our love and prayers are with you at this render time Holly and Evan Schelin

- Holly Schelin

---

Cynthia was one in a million! She was so genuine and kind to everyone she came in contact with! I feel blessed to have known her and pray that her family will be blessed with comfort at this time.

- Lizette Pace