Today and always, may loving memories bring you peace, comfort, and strength.

Wendy, Nick and Spencer my heart aches for your loss. Dan is one of a kind and I will miss sharing political articles and law enforcement videos with him. Most of all I will miss the joy he puts in Wendy's eyes and seeing the love he has for Nick and Spencer. Your family was always his focus and will continue to be. Love and hugs to all of you.

My heart goes out to Wendy and the whole family. I was lucky enough to get to meet Dan when we went out a couple of times during my business travel. He was a wonderful soul, happy, funny and showed how much he loved Wendy and his family by the way he talked. He will be missed!

We remember with great joy the day you and Dan were sealed in the Salt Lake Temple on that beautiful May morning. You were such a lovely bride and Dan a handsome groom. Seems like only yesterday we stood there with camera in hand capturing the happiness of your life beginning as a couple. Also, remembered the day you and Dan met us, with Ralph and Marjie in the lobby at the Marriott Hotel as you announced you were expecting twins! We've loved being close to your family watching Spencer and Nick as toddlers and cheering for them at t-ball games, baseball, basketball, and football. Watching their achievements in school, Scouting and life. Dan was in "all the way" . We loved the way he loved you. Wendy. You always knew the strength of his love and devotion. It was obvious to us all. You have been blessed beyond words. We are still unable to comprehend that Dan isn't with you...but we know he is and always will be nearby walking with you and his precious sons. He's given them the best he had to give.....and that was his nurturing, love and example of all that is good and lasting. Love always, ❤George and Judy Prince.

Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Hold close those treasured memories and let them bring you comfort and joy, strength and love, and know that he will always be with you and surround you each and every day with every step you take.
