

Dave Plunkett

March 13, 1958 ~ January 31, 2023

Damn, Dave was always a quick wit, underneath his biting humor he was a very giving and caring soul.

- Corey Ames

I met Dave in the 90’s when he had his office on 200 South above a bank. We had a lot of laughs there and then when his office was on Main Street we watched the St. Patrick’s day parade. Many Sundays we spent at totems writing with other comedians & laughing nonstop. When he moved to Vegas I saw him once or twice a year and we would go see a comedy show or just have drinks. I remember one time in particular we had a drink at every bar on Freemont street and ended up drinking kamakazis at the golden nugget. I went to use the restroom and was so drunk I couldn’t find the bar, let alone Dave. The next day I called him and he said he forgot where he parked and took a cab home. That is a memory I’ll never forget. When he lived in California I didn’t get to see him much but we kept in touch and when he moved back we often met for coffee. Every single time I was in Daves presence was fun and funny. I will sincerely miss him & treasure the fond memories I have of the times I spent with him.

- Carey Valentine

Dave was always such a delight..... A funny story or perspective to every situation. He always loved being with his cousins back east, but could have done without the humidity. Will love and miss him always. Much love to you, Marty.

- Martha Duncan