Lauren I am so very sorry!

- deb dubek

Our family met Alex and his family when they came to visit Kenji and Mary in Sandpoint. What a great family and we were lucky to be able to take them for boat rides that got faster as they got older. We wish the family love and strength.

I am saddened to here of the death of Alex. We served together in the West Virginia Charleston Mission. He is was a great companion. Probably one of the funniest . He would borrow kids skate boards and do crazy skateboard stuff in his suit. Even though we haven't kept in touch he is one of those people you don't forget. He taught me so much. My thoughts and prayers are with his family. So sorry for your loss.

Lauren, Milo, Mari, Kai and Isa, We thought there would be time...to catch up, make and share new memories... This overwhelming grief is only subsided by knowing that our dear sweet Alex is surrounded by other angels in Heaven, and will ALWAYS be looking down and watching over you all. There simply is no greater guardian angel. He was a legend here on earth and will now be one in Heaven. We love you, miss you, and pray that God will bring you peace and strength. All our love, Uncle Bob, Aunt Mimi, Ronnie, Don, and Steffi

We'll always remember Alex's spirit, sense of adventure, compassion, and kindness. He was truly one of the most joy-filled people you'd ever meet, and hearing his laughter was the absolute best. Whether it was patiently teaching our boys a new skateboard trick, talking through the complexities of bike repair, or clinking glasses with friends, he was all in. A life cut tragically short, but oh so well and fully lived. Much love to you all, Darby, Mike, Connor & Garrett

- Darby & Mike Doyle

Dear Lauren, Milo, Isa, Mari & Kai, We love you all so much - our hearts are with you at this unbelievably sad time. Alex had the biggest smile and would welcome us into your home on many occasions, like part of your beautiful family. His love for all of you truly was evident, and his kind examples of compassion have touched so many lives.

- Melanie and John Mancini

Lauren and Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Alex was a great man, husband, father, and sad son. The whole Higuchi and Craig Family loved and respected him. Please take care and know we all love you so very much. Auntie Chie'

- Chie Higuchi Craig

So very sorry to hear of your loss. Blessings, Lori

Dear Lauren and children, I wish I had had more opportunities to be with Alex, who was always so friendly, warm, and thoughtful. I see you have many wonderful memories to comfort you. Wishing you well in this hard time, Emily

- Emily Filling

Lauren and family: We were so sorry to get the email from Kenji with sad information about David. It has been a long time since we have seen you and have visited. However, Kenji has kept us informed about your life with David and your blended family in Utah. Tragedies like this are very hard to accept and healing can be a difficult process for all. May the love and support of your family and close friends help during this time as well as sharing all the wonderful memories of David. In friendship and sorrow, Jim and Ann Slack and family

There is a lot I could say about my friend Alex. We used to play Nintendo (e.g. Legend of Zelda) at his house, and he'd be introducing us to the music of Prince or the books of Zecharia Sitchin. I don't think we were even in junior high yet. One of these days I will tell more, because Alex Kluger stories are good stories. To Alex: Thank you for your friendship. I'm sorry we never caught up. Say 'hi' to Prince for me.
