

David Baxter

August 21, 1954 ~ September 8, 2021

David was simply David. He entertained us all with stories of NASA and space exploration. He thought on another level. He is out of pain now. He will be missed by many.

- Bruce Baxter

I am so sad that you left me David... we havent meet even once. Really sad here that you left me... . Now that youre there you will not suffer any pains anymore...Thank you for the love that you gave me. You are always in my heart David .... YOU MAY REST IN PEACE..■■■ LOVE, CRISTINA
