Dear Pruden family, We were so emotional when we heard that Bishop Pruden had "graduated". He meant a lot to us. Your entire family has been on our minds this week. Ramona, I wish we were close by so that I could give you the biggest hugs. Know that we love you all.

- Marvine Forsyth

My thoughts and prayers are with you and family. Hopefully the angels can smile down on your family as you mourn,

- James Hill

I didn't know Mr. Pruden but have worked with his wife for many years. To Ramona and Family, my deepest condolences to you. Ramona, I am deeply in gratitude for all the love and kindness you showed me while I was in the hospital after my own amputation of my lower limb and the understanding and compassion you have as a divine daughter of our Heavenly Father. I know you talked deeply of the love you had for your husband and the experience he went through. May you find peace in this moment of time. My deepest thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

- Kevin Menard

Hi Ramona, this is not a work question. I just heard this news and I am so sorry for you and your family's loss. Thank you for sharing with me how you met each other, these stories will always help you when your heartaches. He will always be with you. The same goes with all of us work family members. We are all here for you.

- Steven Andersen

Dear Ramona I am deeply sorry to hear of your loss. Prayers for you and your family. If there is any thing you ever need, please let me know. He was a great and honorable man. I really enjoyed reading all of his accomplishments and love he shared while on this earth. "well done my faithful Servant" is truly earned for this noble gentleman

- Sandra Stayer

I'm so sorry for your loss. Brother Pruden was always gave a huge smile and hug at church to me and my family. All my love to you and your family.

Our hearts are saddened to hear of Dave's passing. We love him and the things he taught us about being caring, considerate people. We loved hearing him teach in Sunday School- sharing so much historical as well as cultural information along with the spiritual Gospel message. He will be missed by all who love him and each of you.

- Doug and Lani Anderson

My condolences to Ramona and family. I served with David for many years on the board of trustees and grew to love David. He was dedicated to many causes and influenced the lives of many thousands of people. His work and love for others was incredible.

- Larry Richman

What a wonderful man what a legacy he has left. I always loved being in his class and learning from him. And learning about the Savior love you, David

Dear Ramona and the whole Pruden Family, We were so sorry to hear about your loss. We have always enjoyed the occasions we have been able to spend with your family, and David Sr. was always a highlight of those times. We know he is missed, but are grateful for the knowledge we have that he is now laughing, running, and enjoying his time with those who have gone on before. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this difficult time. Love, Dave and Marian Mohlman

Dear Prudens, We send our Love and Condolences. Your Dad, husband and Grandpa was such a good man, and so enjoyable to be around. I will miss his good cheer and uplifting spirit. I remember him for his kindness and good humor. May you all recieve the Comfort you need right now. May David enjoy new freedom without the physical challenges he faced later in life. We Love You All, and are thinking of you with tenderness. Our Best, Michael Lambert

Hi Ramona. I'm so sorry for your loss. You're one of my favorite folks and I know that I can say that along with so many of us at the HUB that I'm thinking of you and your family and praying for strength and comfort for you and your family. I read David's obituary and I can see what a strong part of the community and church family that he was and know that he is at his eternal home and in God's care. When my dad passed, it was sudden and I did a lot of searching to cope with it. I found a poem that has been quoted many times, but is attributed to William Penn, which although I sobbed considerably over it, gave me perspective and a level of peace to think that he's not gone, even though not in my direct sight... just farther along in his journey than I: "We seem to give them back to Thee, 0 God who gavest them to us. Yet as Thou didst not lose them in giving, So do we not lose them by their return. Not as the world giveth, givest Thou 0 Lover of souls. What Thou givest Thou takest not away, For what is Thine is ours also if we are thine. And life is eternal and love is immortal, And death is only an horizon, And a horizon is nothing save the limit of our sight. Lift us up, strong Son of God that we may see further; Cleanse our eyes that we may see more clearly; Draw us closer to Thyself That we may know ourselves to be nearer to our loved ones who are with Thee. And while Thou dost prepare a place for us, prepare us also for that happy place, That where Thou art we may be also for evermore." William Penn 1644 – 1718
