

David Lorenzo Gonzales

April 25, 1947 ~ May 12, 2024

A cheerful man through and through. David left this world a better place through his kindness and music. May the memories shared bring peace and comfort at this time. David's example of goodness will continue, which is truly a blessing. Sending our love, Friends at Suncrest Hospice

Cousin of David, sending my condolences, God bless to all his family and all from UTAH, from Tijeras, New Mexico, USA. We all grew up together. His brother, Jerry and I were very good friends. I was in my Christian Church Sunday morning when Jerry notified me, I will never forget that day, boy did I cry.

David always brought the sunshine in your day. I never thought my husband would give his life to Jesus. after spending time with David he gave his life to the lord. I haven't seen David for a long time but never forgot him.

- Carole Bogenschutz

I know that this day will be hard. But we have hope we will see him again with your mom.

- Corine

We love all of you and are celebrating my uncles new life in heaven. Just think, he is with our Savior Jesus. Oh what a time my uncle is having. Love you guys, all of you!! Hugs to all.

My dear friends: I was aware today of the passing on of a great men, father and a friend who was loved by so many people.. He always welcome people with a great smile. He left behind a wonderful legacy. May the Lord bring peace into your hearts. Even though it seems so hard at the same time your Dad is rejoicing as he now has the time to mingle with your mom and many friends again. Thinking of you. Moses soymoses@gmail.com
