David P. Gardner

March 24, 1933 ~ January 2, 2024

We, in the R.J. Snow family, love and revere David Gardner and his family so very much. We will be eternally grateful for his mentorship and personal friendship over many years, beginning in the 1960's in Santa Barbara, California. He provided us with the opportunity to work closely with him at the University of Utah and that decision transformed our lives as a family. Thank you for sharing him with us. We send sincere empathy at your loss, and pray for your peace and many happy memories. He truly was a giant among men!

- Marilyn Snow (R.J. Snow Family)

Sheila, we send our love and condolences to you. We so much enjoyed our times and travels with you and David. We wish peace and happiness for all the good you brought into His life and for being such a good and kind person. May the Lord bless you abundantly!

- Kent and Barbara Murdock

Dear Karen and Gardner family, So sorry for the passing of your father. He was a great scholar and public servant. His legacy will live on through you, your children and his posterity. May you find peace and comfort now and always. Sincere Sympathies, Joanne R. Milner

- Joanne R. Milner

He will be missed by many. I was his administrative assistnt briefly when he returned to UC Berkeley to help keep the Center for Studies in Higher Education open and operating as a higher education research center and also while compiling his memoirs. A fine gentleman and scholar.

- Diane Terry