Our "circle" of love won't be the same without David's smile and humor. We will miss him. We are praying for Chauni and her family as they mourn and unite with love. Sharing our hugs and concern.

Dear Chauni, ■■■" NO DISTANCE OF PLACE OR LAPSE OF TIME CAN LESSEN THE FRIENDSHIP (deep loving companionship) OF THOSE WHO ARE THOROUGHLY PERSUADED OF EACH OTHER'S (eternal) WORTH. ~Robert Southey I truly know these beautiful words with a few of my words added are not only correct but very truly comforting. I pray for you and your children to feel our Saviors loving arms around you as special memories are brought into your minds and you your hearts will be filled with the joyful truthful feelings that are being sent your way from those of us here as well as those on the other side of the veil. Sincerely, Julie Keddington ■■■■

Dear James ,Kendalyn and family, I just want you to know that I am keeping you in my thoughts and prayers. I know that this is a special family time. I know that your father would be really proud of you and the things that you have accomplished in your lives. He was a great example to you all. Love, Aunt Anita

I'm very sorry to read of Bro. Harris's passing. My only interaction with him was brief yet very significant. I was an arrogant 18 yr old in mission prep in the Bountiful Central Stake. I was sent to Bro. Harris's home to practice teaching him a discussion. He ended up teaching me a great deal that evening about sharing the gospel properly and studying to be prepared. I never forgot that evening; stayed with me my entire mission and ever since then. I'll always be grateful he took the time to patiently serve me a bit of humble pie and prepare me for future growth. My deepest condolences to his family.

Dear Harris Family, I grieve with you at this time of sadness at the loss of David. He had a full life. He left you a wonderful legacy. The Savior taught: "And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you." (John 16:22). It is my prayer that at this time your sorrow will be replaced with fond memories. He will see you again at a time and place far better than here and now. May you rejoice with your family and friends as you gather to remember him. Sincerely, Tim Baxter Nicholasville, KY

Chauni and family: We are simultaneously saddened and joyful at Dave's passing. I remember several choice experiences with Dave as we visited various families in our neighborhood together. I wasn't always sure what he would say, almost like Forrest Gump with his box of chocolates. But I knew his heart was inline with his upbringing. He will not be forgotten. --Greg & Sue Kjar
