Dear Bryce and Paul and Family, Your Father and Grandfather was a great man, who always focused on making everyone in the room happy. He just wanted them happy and he always shared what he had. He loved flying, and he loved life, his wife and was so proud of his boys. He was anxious to share what his family was doing. He had an infectious grin and always a positive attitude. He taught his kid this same kindness, and that is greatness. He will be missed.

Bryce, Paul, I wish you well. And I hope that you will enjoy your memories of your father. Pleasant memories will drift into your mind from time to time. Your dad (and you also) have been on the perimeter of my existence for about 55 years. My most recent fond memory being at skypark a couple of years ago when you and your dad coincidentally encountered me with my dad at the airport air show.
