

DeLores Smith

April 6, 1937 ~ January 11, 2025

Delores was a very special lady. She took great care of Jayke and Kyle throughout their lives and was a great example of selfless love. She lost her beloved Chet years ago, way too soon. I’m sure they are together again. We were blessed to have them both in our lives and we miss them. Until we meet again, rest in peace and watch over us. Love you forever
