Please accept our heartfelt condolences to all of the Dennis McCrady family for the loss of your father, grandfather and great grandfather. I know first hand that losing someone you love hurts deeper in your heart and soul than you could ever have imagined. It’s proof that you have loved and cherished them deeply and it was worth every minute of their existence here on earth. I hope you’ll be comforted by all the good memories of him and make many more new ones in his honor with those he left behind. We are grateful for Dennis because of the gift he gave the world in all of his wonderful and amazing children. Thanks to your sweet and precious mother, Diane, we were blessed with nine really great people to cherish and the best parts of his legacy is evident as it lives on in all of you. Know that in this time of sorrow, you are all loved and continually prayed for every single day. Keep living each one as though it is your last. Thankfully, heaven is coming soon for us all and what a day of rejoicing that will be when we are reunited with those we have loved and lost. All my love and deepest sympathy, Your Cousin Allison & family (Mark, Ariel & Jaren Tilden & Jerzey Brown)
