September 13, 2004 ~ February 10, 2025

Scott, Sienna, Bradley and family. I am so sorry for your loss. From the time Devin came into our lives at a few months old, we knew that he and Tanner would share a bond forever. We will carry his fun loving spirit with us always. We pray that god will bring you all in peace during this time and moving forward. Smile and be proud of a young man that brought so much joy into the lives he came in contact with. We will miss him always. Love the Grooms family.

Devin was the sweetest boy and always a good friend for my daughter Kyra. I remember seeing him often during their years at Albion and then Brighton. He was a kind face at Smiths for me to look for. I will miss his sweet smile and cute personality.

Sending all my love and support to Devin’s family. No words can express how grateful I am to have known him and the heartbreak of hearing the news of his passing. Sending my love and condolences.

Scott and Sienna - we are so sorry for your loss. Devin was an amazing kid. I had the privilege to not only know him as the older brother who picked on the girls when they were little, but the amazing student that he was at Albion. Our hearts are broken for you and all those that loved Devin. You are all in our thoughts and we are grateful that we got the chance to know Devin.
