

Diania Jackson Smith

July 30, 1950 ~ May 7, 2024

I loved getting to know Diania when I was invited to family parties. She was always kind and friendly. She was so talented with her art work, and Sheldon was very creative, too. There was such a strong bond in the Smith family, and Uncle Si and Aunt Ruthie had such warm personalities, joy and laughter. Service and helping others seemed to be very natural in this family, and our Grammie benefited a great deal in this regard. I felt a great connection to Diania, but then I am sure that was true for anyone who knew her. I felt sad to learn of her dimentia, and feel sure that all of her abilities are now restored. I want to express my condolences and love to Sheldon and her children. Thank you for wonderful memories at Thanksgiving and many other times. May you have peace and continue to feel Diania's ongoing love in your lives.

I am so sorry to hear about Diana. I only found out today and it was such a sad message. I knew Diania as a next door neighbor and always thought she was such a grand lady. She raised some great kids that grew up with mine until she and her family moved. I loved her art. I know she wanted to get more involved with it and I'm glad she had that opportunity. I want to wish her family all the peace and knowledge that blessings will still be with your family because of your beliefs and her love for all of you. My prayers are with you always in this time of sorrow.

What a wonderful lady Diania was. I had the good fortune to become her friend while attending Fairhaven College. A friendship that lasted almost 55 years. Our families thoughts and prayers.are with the Smith family .

Diania was my cousin and just one year older. I have found memories of her and David at our Jackson grandparent's home in Sugarhouse. I always thought so much of her even though they moved to Washington where she spent most of her school years. She was an exceptional person.

Dear Sheldon and family, I just found this obituary and am saddened to learn of Diania's passing. She was lovely in every way. Glad I was able to know her. I send you my love.
