

Dixie Lee Lawrence

May 3, 1978 ~ April 4, 2026

The world is a bit sadder without the lovely Dixie in it and heaven is now even better. This was a brave and beautiful person. She will be missed. Love, Susan

- Susan Etheridge

So sorry to hear about Dixie. I know it has been a long road but I know she is in good hands now. I remember coming to the house and having fried tacos with your family. My favorite .My memories of Dixie is that sweet, fragile kid, but oh what a fighter. Our thoughts are with you guys and if there's anything we can do please don't hesitate to call. Love Zane.

- Zane Cutler

Dixie rose above her physical heart condition and lived from her true heart of love and service. She will be missed by many people.

- Pamela Appleton

Dixie will be very missed. We loved her and you Jodie. You will be in our thoughts and prayers. So sorry for your loss.

- Sheryl and Jeff Davis

I know ur pain, and u will be better in a few years u never forget but allow your heart to find joy in the beauty around you cause that’s what Dixie would want. She was a beautiful person love her puppies.

- ?

So sorry to hear about Dixie. What a beautiful young woman. It's been a long time since I saw you. Good times in the neighborhood and church. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

- Dianna neve

Mike, Jodie, Cindy and Amy I am so sorry for your loss. I have very many years of memories of Dixie. May you have peace in knowing that she is with family and out of pain. I love you guys and miss you. God bless you and comfort you.

- Denese Gudgell Thompson

Dixie I love you more than anything. I am so happy you have all of your fur babies again. That you are out of pain, and can finally do everything that you wanted to do. Rest in Peace my dear friend I will love and miss you forever.

- Martha Schoenberg (Gordon)

Our prayers are with all of the family during this incredibly difficult time.■■ Rest in Paradise Dixie■ You'll forever live on in the hearts of all of those that love you!

- Heather Weight & Family

My favorite memory of Dixie was the time her and Joey went to preschool together. They would always walk out together holding hands. They always kept in touch through the years talking sports and reminiscing about the fun times spent together on Rushton Lane. Dixie is happy and now, free from pain and is in the loving arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. God bless you Mike, Jodie, Cindy, Amy and family as you move Forward with this difficult time.

- Rod & Lorrie Morris

There are people in your life you wish you had more time with, and my cousin, Dixie, is one of those for me. I grew up in Las Vegas while she lived in Utah, so we did not get to see each other as often as I would have liked, but the time we had together was always spent laughing. I will always remember the fun we had at Bear Lake and going to California in her family's RV. What stands out most to me about Dixie is not just how brave and strong she was, but how thoughtful she was even in the smallest ways. One of my favorite memories of Dixie is from when I had come to Utah for a family member's service and realized I had only brought one dress. At that age, the thought of being the only one wearing the same dress twice in a row felt embarrassing. I spent the night at her house and shared that with Dixie. Without making it a big deal, she asked her mom if she could wear the same dress she had just worn too, just to make me feel better. No one else noticed what we were wearing, but I did and I was always incredibly grateful for that. That moment has always stayed with me because it showed exactly who she was. She cared. She made people feel seen without ever needing recognition for it and she was always thinking of everyone else. It is those small things that mean the most and stay with you the longest. I will miss her for her amazing heart, her courage, and a strength that never needed to be loud to be felt. I feel lucky to have had her in my life. I love you, Dix.

- Jill Geesey