

Dixie Lee Wagaman

March 20, 1938 ~ September 27, 2025

I was her CNA and even till her last days she had a smile and a joke to crack. She was so loved and we are all praying and thinking about you guys.■

- Maci

May the love of our Savior touch your lives at this time as Dixie has touch all of us. You are all loved very much!!!

- Kathleen Petty

"Dear family and loved ones of Dixie, I'm so sorry to hear of her passing. Our hearts go out to you during this difficult time. The staff at [Sunridge assisted living & memory care] remembers Dixie fondly and is thinking of you with compassion and care. We were honored to have had the opportunity to care for her and will miss her presence here."

- Lolo

You were like a mom to me after my dad and mom divorced. I will miss you so much and I promise you that I will go to church every Sunday and go to the Temple every chance I get. Love you Aunt Dixie

- Walter Clausen

I am one of the CNA’s that took care of her these last few months she always knew how to bring a smile to all of our faces, she would always talk to me about how beautiful her children are and how proud she is of them, every time i walked into her room she always had visitors that kept her company i couldn’t see them but i know they were there with her during her last moments. My condolences to her family and friends heaven gained a beautiful angel and i know she had many people waiting to welcome her❤■

- Jocelyn

Just heard yesterday about this. She was a part of our family and our policeman group in which my dad and mom were a part. I enjoyed being around her . I'll miss her.

- Michael Greenhalgh