Dolores Adamson Simons

April 4, 1929 ~ March 9, 2022

A lovely, caring person to many and all. A great mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She will be missed by her family and many others. My condolences.

- Randolph Creager

Janine, what a wonderful life your mother had! This is a beautiful obituary of a life full of service and love. She raised a wonderful daughter too!

- Julie London

What a beautiful tribute to your mother. And what a full and wonderful life she lived. Thank you for sharing her story with us. I can only imagine how much she will be missed. May you each be filled with peace knowing how much you are loved by her.

- Paula Manwaring

It was a lovely service celebrating the life of an incredible lady. Your mother was an amazing person she such a remarkable life. What a noble lady. Thinking of you and your family and wishing you moments of peace and comfort as you remember this dear soul that was so close to you. Sending healing prayers and comforting hugs. Janine it's really amazing how much you resemble your mom in appearance. she has left a great legacy in you. Bryce G. Palmer

- Bryce Palmer