

Donnabelle Steenblik Rogers

August 30, 1927 ~ October 21, 2021

That first picture of the tribute is perfect The bright smile is how we will remember your Mother always. A great woman and example of enduring to the end. It is good to know of the reunion with all those who preceded her in crossing the veil. Our prayers are with your family for the comforting spirit and knowledge that we all will be together again.
