November 19, 1951 ~ October 24, 2021

I will miss your corny texts and conversations. My love and prayers to the family. I am saddened and still cannot believe he has moved on, but know he is trilled to be back with his sweetheart.

I am so sorry to hear about Doug. He was one of my first friends at the age of 4 years old. I spent many days with my Evans cousins who lived next to the Woolley family. Doug was always part of our activities. I will continue to think of him often.

I am left without words at hearing of Doug’s death. He was a great guy and had an even great sense of humor. He will be truly missed. Love and prayers for friends and family.

So very sorry to hear about Doug. He was just a year older than me. I wish I would have known him better, but I do remember visiting his family in Salt Lake City when just a young kid. My father, Russell, loved visiting his sister Maude and her family. My fondest memory is flirting with two slightly older young women thinking I was all that a bag of chips. Wish I could remember who they were. Sorry, I digressed. I'm pretty sure Doug and I were up to no good a time or two, that's boys for you. I love the picture of Doug and his sweet ride. We must have the same blood type. Life is meant to be lived, and it looks like Doug lived one with excitement. Well done! Seriously, happy trails,

Doug. God bless you, your family, friends and loved ones. Till we meet again.

We send our condolences to the siblings and family of Doug. The legacy of the Woolley family in Utah influenced many of the grandchildren and perhaps especially Doug. He gave extremely generously to our effort to commemorate his great grandfather E. D. Woolley at the North Rim of the Grand Canyon. His work in bettering the communities in which he lived with his own labor and philanthropic giving is a model we should all aspire to and for which he should be honored. Dave has fond memories of Doug as cousins growing up, perhaps as a fellow adventurous and crazy kid. (smile) We are so sorry to miss the funeral but will have him in our hearts. I will miss Doug's smiling face and humor. I remember his family coming to the Ranch every weekend to build a cabin there. My duties and responsibilities was to make sure the horses were saddled and ready to ride for all the family. We have many fond memories of our child hood. I know his neighborhood will miss his pranks. Cherish the memories. That is all we have. Royal & Mary Lamb

A sad day, but many good memories. Doug had such a larger-than-life presence that a world without him just doesn’t seem possible. Fairbanks has not been the same since he left. My sympathy goes out to his family. Douglas G Woolley, a class act who will be sorely missed.
