Sorry for your loss Debbie. I remember growing up in Draper and your families famous Cutler Corn. Fortunately, families are forever and eternal. Condolences for all of your family knowing how losing your father leaves such a crater in your heart.

- Rand Andrus

Debra so sorry for the loss of your dad. Prayers to you and your family.

In honor of one of my favorite humans, I'm sharing one of my favorite memories of him. When Claire (his great-granddaughter) was about 3, the whole extended family was at Grandpa and Grandma's for the 4th or 24th of July (can't remember which) because they had an amazing view of the Draper fireworks show from their backyard.

This visit, Claire planted herself right next to her Great-Grandpa and kept a running commentary of each firework. There was a lot of “Ohhhhh Gate-Gampa! Yook at dat one!!!” Or “Ohhhhh Gate-Gampa, dat one was bootifull.” Or “Gate-Gampa!!! Did you yike dat one?!” After about 10 straight minutes of this, Grandpa looked down at her with a little grin and muttered “You’re alright kid.” It was under his breath, and I don’t think he thought anyone heard, but I did. And it melted my heart. This man was one of the greats and I’m so incredibly thankful for the opportunity I had to get to experience his joy and his love of people.

I will miss him so much, I am glad for him. One more grand soul I look forward to seeing.

I wish my deepest condolences to the Cutler family. Lynn is a great man. I'm so glad I was able to know him. He is, to this day, my favorite boss of all time. I remember his cheerful demeanor and patience with us. We were a bunch of 13 and 14 year-old boys destroying his corn field. What a great guy.

When I was 8 yrs old in 1963, I was interviewed for baptism by Bishop Cutler. I remember walking past the fields of corn on the way to Primary on 1300 E. Once we got to ride all the way to Draper to pick corn. I am sad to hear Lynn Cutler has passed away. His picture reminds me of my sweet Bishop Cutler, Lynn’s father. I am so sorry for your loss. But so happy to see the legacy of service and honor that runs through the Cutler Family. My condolences and Love.

- Barbara Fairbourn

He was a wonderful a kind man. I'll miss him and his corn! My love and condolences to all of you.

We send our love in honor and remembrance of such a remarkable man whose unwavering faith, devotion to family, and commitment to his community left a lasting impact on so many. His kindness, wisdom, and generosity will be deeply missed but never forgotten. May you find comfort in the sweet legacy of love, faith and service he planted in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Lynn was the first bishop we knew when we moved to Draper in 1974. He was the best ... friendly, kind and caring toward all of us in the ward and Lane and I will always think of him as Bishop Cutler. We are glad we knew him and

Margaret and their dear family. You are all wonderful examples of Gospel-living. We know you are sad and miss him. We pray that the Lord will comfort you at this time. Love from Lane and Danna Walsh

Lynn was my very first bishop in the U.S.A. Such a kind and exemplary man. A Draper legend left us but he is continuing his harvest on the other side. He will be forever remembered and loved.

Lynn taught me to drive -- a tractor. The first time he let me drive I let the clutch off too fast and nearly killed him, but he didn't scold me. Then, when I nearly took off his hand and dented the back of his pickup by backing into it, he was patient and kind. I'm a better man today for having had Lynn's influence in my life, and I will never forget him. My most sincere condolences to those who feel his loss more deeply than I do.
