

Dylan Douglas Miller-Mettome

March 12, 1997 ~ March 26, 2024

Beautiful beautiful words by all. May the memories help you through the difficult times ahead. Rest assured he is always near! RIP Dylan.

My condolences to the family of Dylan "el guero" we had the pleasure of meeting him in Chicago when he came to visit Josiah and Kayla. He was a very friendly person, and he stole everybody's hearts. I know there's no words to say to the family, it's hard to lose someone you deeply love. I'll keep his family in my prayers. And Dylan in my prayers for his soul to be at peace. Sometimes we don't understand why things happen, and we question god but he is already at the light where there is no pain and no worries. Rest in peace Dylan "el Guero". Love the Rodriguez family.

Never thought I'd be writing a sad post about you D-Mil. Because every moment and memory we had together was positive. From meeting you in 7th grade, to hanging out everyday, taking our senior trip together, you visiting me in Chicago, to you and Jenny asking Kayla and I to be your daughters god parents. I Forever will remember our brotherly bond and how you treated my daughter Alaiah and gave her anything she wanted when uncle D-Mil was around. I know you would've been the same way with Anayah but unfortunately god had other plans for you and couldn't meet her. I remember you coming up to us after your baby shower and asking us the question about godparents, and with no hesitation we said yes! We were so honored for you to trust us and telling us that you know we'd take care of Aaviana if he ever needed. I know I will never fill your shoes for her, but I promise to always care and protect her like one of my own.❤️👤 till we see each other again. I love you Dylan D Miller👤👤

Dear Dylan, I loved you so dearly brother but God took you closer to be with Him. May your eternal journey be full of love and grace. You have left me with a broken heart and sadness in my soul. Every single day I miss you more thank you for the memories you shared with me I'm so thankful for everything you've done for our family. Not many people can accomplish what you did in one lifetime in three lifetimes. You are a legend, and we will try our best to uphold your legacy. You brought happiness into our lives when you always came to visit us. You one of kind brother rest peacefully.

- Justin

We are so sorry for everyone who knew Dylan. He was one of the most amazing young man that I have ever met in my life and there is no doubt that he will be missed by many. May his family continue on in this crazy world. Love Rick H. May God bless you all

This isn't easy for a parent to go through. I know this from experience losing my own son. I know how hard it is to find words to something that is so tragic in your life Nancy. If there's anything I can help you with please reach out to me. It'll take some years to make it easier to handle it's something that you will never get over. I love you Nancy Mettome to your son Dylan RIP

- Terri Hill

Our condolences. RIP Dylan
