Sorry to hear this sad news. May your family find peace in their hearts at this time of loss and grief. I don't know if this is appropriate to add here, but just a couple of memories and thoughts about how Rock influenced my life... We all loved Rock! Growing up, he was the neighbor with a boat AND that was happy to take boatloads of rowdy kids out on the water. Later, I was lucky enough to go again with my wife and oldest daughter to Echo reservoir before it ran out of good water skiing. Always supportive of me, just a neighbor-kid. When I had a painting business, he found work to throw my way. When I realized painting was going to wear out my body way too soon, I took up appraising. Rock and Linda helped me to get my foot in the door to appraising. People were always impressed that Rock had such a young wife. He was so happy with Linda. He would always say, if everyone was the same, everyone would all be perfect like my wife, and then this would be a boring world to live in. Just one of his few sayings. I love that Rock was able to bridge any age gaps and get along with anyone. He was a young ninety-six-and-a-half! One thing he always told me when he paid me for my work was that I should always pay my tithing and remember the Lord first, and if I did that, I would never run out of work or lack for my family. If I turn out to be half as good as Rock, I will consider that as pretty darn good. Thanks for being a part of my life!

I started writing and for some reason it went away before I finished. I will try again and hope there aren’t two from me posted. I knew Rock when I was a very small boy as his first wife Jean was my cousin. I remember he had a sense of humor and loved teasing me. We often spent time together at my parents home at Christmas also on numerous occasions at my uncle and aunts Marv and Pauline for backyard picnics and rousing games of ping pong.. Over the years we have become more distant so it was good to read his obituary and read about his numerous accomplishments, way to go Rock and appreciated his testimony of our Father and his son Jesus Christ. This will have a great impact on his life in the spirit world. I knew his children, Vicki, Mark, Brig and Tori and certainly wish the very best for Vicki and Mark as they deal with the loss of a father. And his wife Linda and the rest of the family may you be blessed and comforted at this time. Richard Bruno and my wife Christie..

Christy and I are grateful to know Rock. Rock is one in a million and we will miss him. 'Til we meet again.
