

Elizabeth Anne Reynolds

July 11, 2013 ~ December 12, 2022

I pray the Lord will send your family peace. Your sweet Elizabeth will be waiting for her eternal families reunion. Truly families are forever.

- Barbara Davenport

Elizabeth had the sweetest aura about her. I am happy that she no longer has to deal with so many difficulties and is now whole. Wishing her loving family comfort and assurance in the day they will see her again.

- Carol Mausser

Elizabeth will be remembered for being a special student in our 300 hallway at Houston! When she was able, Elizabeth would join our snowball tossing, parachute play and other activities in the hallway. My class enjoyed watching Elizabeth and her friends present their Christmas program each year. We made many treasured memories with Elizabeth! My prayers are offered for Elizabeth and her family.

- Ms. Cindy from Houston Elementary

Praying for your comfort at this time.

- Donna Pope

I was blessed to have Elizabeth in my Sunbeam class. She was such a joy. May you be comforted through the Savior. I will always have fond memories of Elizabeth. My heartfelt prayers are with you.

- Evelyn Gruter

Sweet Elizabeth! I loved seeing her each Primary. She tried so hard to see all that was going on. I'm so sorry your time together was short. But I'm so very happy that she is free now from her difficulties and returned to her heavenly home. Bless you Emily for your loving mothering and always smiling face. I have been blessed to know you & your family.

So sorry for your loss of a precious daughter and granddaughter. However one day there will be a beautiful reunion.

- Deanna Jeffers

Our family loved cheering with Elizabeth. The Reynolds are so wonderful! High fives from Maddox to Eli!

This is a beautiful tribute. There is no doubt in my mind that Elizabeth chose the perfect family to spend her time on Earth with. I am very impressed at the life your family provided her. Truly a miracle she was able to be with you as long as she was. Rae

We remember the day she was born with those striking, gorgeous, bright blue eyes. We love you and are praying for your family during this difficult time.

- Keri Holyoak

Hoping you can find and feel peace through the sadness. Kids with challenges seem to have an increased ability to show and share love. I imagine it's one reason her loss so difficult. The good thing is you will still be able to feel her love and strength from time-to-time. You'll recognize it and bathe in its warmth like sunlight from above. God bless your family as you grieve.

The only time I got to meet Elizabeth was 2 years ago for Christmas at Adrian and Emilee's home. From the moment I saw her, I knew that she was very special. It is a rare thing to meet someone and just feel peace and harmony. I have been able to see Elizabeth grow up as the years have gone by from pictures that have been posted of her. Especially enjoying time with her family. My heartfelt condolences go out to her family. She is waiting for you. Love to you all - Melanie

Elizabeth you will be missed. Thank you for your spirit and for being another angel in the classroom.

- Tami Meneses

I am so sorry to hear about Elizabeth's passing. I was Eli's teacher at Meridian Elementary. One of my favorite memories is when we were doing WebEx meetings and Elizabeth would pop up behind Eli. She always laughed and smiled! You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

Adrian and Emily, Thank you for the opportunity to participate in the service today to honor the life of your beautiful daughter. Meryll and I were inspired by your love and faith as we watched and listened. Our hearts go out to you as you pass through the hardest thing any parent can experience, and we pray that the only possible comfort—God's comfort—will envelope you, strengthen you, and leave you with sweet feelings of gratitude and with hope for a bright eternity, together with your precious daughter. It has been a long time but our tears were mingled with yours today—we love you. God bless you. Doug and Meryll
