Elliot and I weren’t close enough but he was absolutely amazing. He alway made class so much fun last year and I hate that I had to part from him this year but He always put a smile on everyone’s face and knew how to make me feel good and supported. I miss him.

My heart is heavy with the news about Elliot. His smile will always be in my mind. His twinkling eyes were so welcome to see when he mastered a new piano piece and the satisfaction and sigh that came with it. Thank you, Elliot, for the time I had being your piano teacher! Sue Williams elliot was a such a good friend. he was funny, he was smart, and he cared. im gonna miss him so much. i wish he were here today, wish he could help me with my math homework, make bad jokes, and just be here with all of us. i know how hard his battle with mental health was, i remember seeing the scars on his arms and wishing i could do more to help. my condolences go out to his family, his brother and sisters, and his parents, and to his clostest friends. im so sorry we couldnt do more for him. elliot was one of the funniest people ive met in a while, and ill miss him, but i hope that we can all heal together, even if slowly. thank you.

- Amelia Marshall

What a great kid, Elliot will be missed by so many. I loved his drive and determination to help everyone be better. As his soccer coach it was a pleasure to have known Elliot and be part of those really happy moments. His willingness to do his best and play as hard as possible to support his team was something special. My prayers are with you all.

- Coach Scott Nichols

I knew him from jazz band last year. He was a great addition to the group and was always fun to be around.

Aaron, I remember you as a sweet, young boy in Willow Creek. It saddens me to hear of your loss. We loved your parents and your whole wonderful family. Your sadness is mine also. I lost my husband Richard 8 months ago and I want to tell you that the Savior does comfort those who mourn. He seems to replace a great deal of the sadness with thankfulness that we had them in our lives. I pray that you will be able to dwell on the happy times and memories that you shared with Elliot. I am praying for you and your wife and family.

- Turnbow Suzanne

Elliot was the first friend I made in math class. He was smart, kind, and so so caring. I'm so heartbroken that he felt the need to go this far. I send my condolences to his family, and everyone close to him. I'm so sorry, and I wish I could've done more. He will be missed by so many, and he was and still is loved by lots. <3

- Nixon Creegan

Dear Benson family and friends, I did not know Elliot beyond a parent of his soccer team-mate Asher. He was an incredible athlete and was extremely psyched when playing. I recall several games where the other team was short-handed with Elliot switching and he lit up and carried whatever team he was one. He will be dearly missed. May we all celebrate all elements of his life. My heart and prayers go out to you and your family. Sincerely, Eli

- Eli Iacob

Elliot was absolutely a light! He was such an amazing friend to Matt. He made his life and our lives better. We miss him so much.

I never really knew Elliot, but I usually saw him walking between classes. When he was walking, I always saw him making the people he was with laugh and smile. Elliot would have been a great person to be friends with. I am very sorry to the Benson family for their loss, and may Elliot Rest In Peace.

Dear Benson Family, It’s hard to find the words. I hope you know of and feel the love, support, and condolences of the community and your friends and family at this time. I knew Elliot as a soccer teammate to my son JT, and his spirit, light, and presence will be dearly remembered and missed by his teammates, their parents, and his coaches. Elliot’s impact and light on all those around him were important and are felt and live on. Again, please know that there are many mourning with you, and I hope your family feels the genuine good will and support of your neighbors and friends. Caitlin Benson

I wish so badly that I could’ve gotten to be closer with Elliot. I only talked to him occasionally, but when I did he made me smile. Being able to play Dungeons and Dragons with him was so much fun. Elliot was an amazing person and a wonder to be around. He will be missed greatly.

- Q Smith

I am so sorry to hear about Elliot. I did not know him very well or for very long. I would have loved to be able to know him better because he really was a such a kind person and always made others feel welcome and loved. He was funny and overall just an amazing person. He performed amazing and humorous plays in theater class that would me and others laugh. He will be missed and I send my love to anyone who is deeply missing him. Dear Benson Family, Elliot and I were friends in MELP and band. I wanted to share some of my favorites moments with him that happened in school. 4. During the pandemic in zoom theater class together, we had a group project and Elliot was thrilled we wrote our scene around Star Wars. I was so happy to have someone to talk about the Mandalorian with. We shared so many laughs and he smiled so much during that assignment. 3. In language arts class, we sat next to each other and when I asked how he was doing he said "I'm doing well, how are you?" When I responded "I'm great!" he got mad at me for not using proper grammar and we laughed together. 2. I was lucky to be in band with him, he looked so happy playing the saxophone and he was so talented. 1. Our table group loved to have banter with him about Greek mythology. We would say Hercules because he would always correct us and say it's Heracles! We would giggle because he was so set in his ways, we had so much fun chatting. I'm going to miss him and his wit. He was lucky to have such a great family. Sincerely, Lien Hoa Torres

Regan, Aaron and family, Our hearts are just aching hearing about the loss of Elliot. You truly raised a wonderful young man. He was always so diligent about helping get Jacob, Sammi and Maddie out of the house and off to school along with his sister's morning after morning and he did it with a smile. When it was time for Hilary and Sam to move, Elliot was right there helping out working much harder than most everyone else and again with a smile on his face. Please know that we love him and we love you guys even though we don't know you well. We have felt his loving spirit very strongly this week. We know he has a loving place with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. Darin and Vera Pitt (Hilary's parents)
