Emerito Torres

June 15, 1931 ~ September 15, 2021

Thank you Emerito, for living a beautiful life and letting us all be a part of it. Knowing you were cruising the neighborhood on your bicycle always made me feel safe. You and your family were a huge part of my childhood, and I will be forever grateful to you. ❤■ Eden (Baird)

I remember when we moved into our home in Sugarhouse. We wanted to put a garden in our backyard, but the ground needed to be turned over. Emmerito showed up at my door saying I have come. I told him that we could turn the ground over but he insisted that he would do it. He really worked to get all the ground turned over so we could plant a vegetable garden. He went above and beyond in service and kindness.

So saddened to hear of you family's loss. It is true, Emerito was greatly respected & loved by all who knew him. I admired so much his love of his country, hard work ethic, and faith. I have great memories of him riding his bike around the neighborhood, working to beautify the place that he loved. He was always someone you knew you could depend on, always offering to help, and was a man of his word. So grateful I was able to know him. What a great legacy he has left behind!
