Man Lil bro where do I start ..First off I wanna Thank God for bringing you to my house last week ..showing me your raider stadium videos and your Hard hats and tools and talking about your business ideas ..I was so happy to see that you got your cadi fixed cause I knew you loved that car so much ..I remember when you first got it and you came back out salt lake you was so happy ,grateful and proud of how hard you worked for what you had and I was so proud of the man you became overcoming all the b.s and wild life we was in to becoming such a strong spiritual God loving man who Just wanted to work hard and take care of his family !!tremember when I spoke to you after you had wrecked your car and I remember how bummed you sounded cause you loved that cadi ..so when i seen you pulling into my driveway bumping with that beaming smile and car fixed I first felt happy that you had your baby back but then I felt proud that you got it figured out and fixed . .Vanessa reminded me how I would always tell her how much you would remind me of myself and I would always try my best steer you in the right way and give you my best advice like a older brother just not wanting his little brother to make the same mistakes he’s made ..but in all reality most the time you would step up and be the big brother I always wanted and I would look up to you ..anytime I was going thru hard times you would be the one to step up and find a solution ..for example I remember when I got shot and that next day we talked and I spoke about how I know God was with me and he let me live you said what we’re gonna do brother is we’re gonna go to church together and we’re both gonna get baptized together and become a born again Christian and you rounded up damn near your whole family and we went to church ..another thing I will always be grateful for is when I called you balling my eyes out sobbing like a baby when I had just found out my two year old son had leukemia you said this what we gonna do ima call Jordan and ask him to pray for little michael ..Jordan was always our to go guy when we was in need of a strong prayer lol then ima stop by the church and grab prayer oil and I’ll be up there so we can pray ..you came over and you looked me in my eyes with the most confidence and told me your son will heal and son will get better and live a long life cause he is my nephew and I love him and God will heal him ..we sat with my wife and son you rubbed the oil on him and you started the prayer and we all three sat there and cried and prayed for hours ...Lil bro these was the moments were I would look up to u as my big brother and inspire me to become a better man like a big brother does ..my daughter Olivia loves you so much and would always say you was her favorite uncle !!!lol you was so pure and genuine and loving bro !!we will always love you Millz and you will always be in my heart and my family's heart ..I'm so so so sorry brother this hurts me so hard man you didn't deserve this but as we spoke about this before ..No matter what happens we need to remind ourselves this is all in Gods plan and God had it planned to have his soldier beside him !!Lil bro I'm on my knees crying praying for you and also that God brings us all and your family comfort through this ..MY FAMILY AND I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU AND KEEP YOU DEAR IN OUR HEARTS !!AND IM GOING TO FOREVER NE GRATEFUL FOR YOU BEING THERE EVERY SINGLE I MEAN EVERY SINGLE TIME I WAS IN NEED !!I WILL FOREVER LOVE YOU LITTLE BROTHER !!!!

Baby I can't do this I'm dying inside without you. My heart literally breaks every time I open or close my eyes! I miss our calls I miss our texts I miss staying up late having deep conversations talking about our future. We talked about getting married and what we were going to name our babies. We made so many plans now what am I going to do without you! I can't go on I can't even breathe I lost my heart! I've never been loved the way you love me no matter what we went through or who came in our lives we always wanted and went back to each other! How am I supposed to live I can't even imagine going back to our home in Vegas and see all your stuff just sitting exactly where you left it. All I can do is cry for you I sleep in your clothes because I feel like your holding me, they still smell like you!! I miss you calling me cute little names and constantly smacking my but telling me how much you love me. My life is forever different now and I will always be yours. If I dedicate my life to you and the lord please wait for me Baby YOU ARE THE LOVE OF MY LIFE!! I feel guilty even eating or thinking of living. I'm staying close with your family I don't want to leave I'm moving back to Utah to be close to you my love. This pain is so hard it hurts all over. It's more then physical it's a deep soul aching pain so deep! I'm miss the intimacy knowing I will never let another man touch me. I miss holding your hand laying your head on my chest kissing your lips rubbing your knees and feet from being sore from work! I grieve every part of you. I know we had our issues but when you were with me you made me feel like I was the only one the most beautiful girl in the world!!! I'm finding myself feeling jealous or angry when I see couples hugging or comforting each other. I know this pain will never go away. You will always be the man for me EMILLIO SANTIAGO SALAZAR + CLARISSA ■
