My heart aches over the loss of such an amazing woman. I may have only known her for a short period of time, but she was such a blessing. She had so much spunk and sass about her, she knew how to keep the boys in line. I loved singing karaoke, jumping on the tramp and doing all the girly things. I will never forget her huge infectious smile. Please know her and her family are in my prayers. My deepest condolences.

Marissa always had a special place in our hearts. So beautiful and sparkly. She will be missed. Our love goes out to all her family. We are there if you need anything.

- Lori and Gordy

My heart aches when I think of all the disappointment and loss that was part of Marissa's life. She would say, "'It's ok I'm over that." I don't know if you ever get over some of the things that happened to her. Now, I think she really is ok. I know Marissa felt loving arms wrap around her as she left this earth life. I am so grateful for Stan being the constant in her life. He was always there for her. I would hug her and tell her that I loved her and she would say, "Of course I know you do."
