Hearing the news of Emily's passing broke my heart. Emily was a good friend in high school and we both swam on the swim team and worked as lifeguards at the Clearfield Aquatic Center. Emily was such a kind person. Everyone she interacted with came away better for it. She will be dearly missed by all who know her. I wish the family some measure of peace and comfort through this difficult time. Going forward we must do our best to honor Emily's memory by filling the world with beauty and kindness. Much love for the family, Brandon Hopfenbeck

My love to you all. May peace come to you as this difficult adjustment is needed.

I'm so very sorry for your loss. Emily was one of my swimmers in high school, and I got to know her through the many hours that athletes spend with their coaches. She was a bright light to our team, and always worked so hard. I didn't know her in her adult years, but as a youth she was vibrant, loving and kind. My condolences to her family, especially to her children and husband. I wish you peace during this terrible time in your lives.

Bill, I am deeply saddened by your unexpected loss. I can't imagine the pain you must be feeling, though at the same time I know you feel of the comforting love of family, friends, but especially of our Heavenly Father. Through your sealing, you know that you will be joined with Emily for eternity. Hang on to that is my prayer for you and the kids—love from Bishop Seawright

Dear Bill, My husband and I learned of Emily's tragic death as news was shared during a church meeting last Sunday morning. That afternoon when I observed him sitting alone I asked if he was doing alright. "I keep thinking about Brother Bowers and how I would be feeling." Every day we think of you. You must have super human strength to keep breathing and walking. I have yearned to know more about Emily. Seeing her pictured here and reading a brief summary of her life I feel an instant connection. That is probably simply Emily. To have her life summed up in a few hundred words leaves us wanting more. And now we share that longing with you, albeit on a minut scale. We all want to be with souls that shine. Here's to Emily, who is shining on in Arya, Mazimus and YOU! Tenderly, Carolyn & Lane
