I was deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Eric. Please accept my heartfelt condolences during this painful time. Eric was a great father—devoted, caring, and always present for his family. He was a true friend to so many, someone whose kindness and warmth left a lasting impression on everyone he met. As a husband, he was dedicated and loving, and the bond he shared with his wife was a beautiful example of commitment and love. Eric was also a man full of talents. He gave generously of his gifts and used them to bring joy and value to the lives of others. His presence made a difference, and he will be deeply missed. Though words cannot take away the sorrow, I hope you find comfort in the memories you shared and in knowing how much Eric was loved and respected by all who knew him. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
