Eva is my aunt. Some of my fondest memories as a child are with her. If those memories Christmas is my favorite. She and my grandma (her mom) would come and spend the day. She was always so nice and fun to be around. Love you Aunt Eva.

Eve was an amazing lady! I had the privilege of working with her many years ago and was there to celebrate with her when she retired from Church employment!. Eve was a wonderful confidant and a cherished friend. She could always make me laugh and had a great sense of humor! She continually encouraged me to do and be my best and helped me in that effort. How I loved her! Sending my condolences and love to her beautiful family! Love, Pat Fought

She was an amazing Aunt who supported her many nieces and nephews in all they did. Christmas with her and my Grandma were my best mementoes of her. As well as her fruitcake and other fun treats she made during the holidays. She was always so giving in all that she did. I was blessed to be able to call her my Aunt.

Love you Aunt Eva I'll always remember your letters with the beautiful handwriting you sent to me when I was a young girl. I had mom read them to me because your writing was too fancy for me to decipher. Say hello to my mom and grandma and grandpa Hansen. Love, Chris Frederickson

Aunt Eva has a soft spot in my heart. She would write us li individual letters when she worked out of the state. She was always there to support everyone with be it Scouts Award, a graduation, or birthday. I would like to Thank You to my sister Jane and her family for all the Dr. apts. grocery shopping and needs they helped her take care of for so many years. Along with Doug and Becky a BIG Thank. You to you both also for following through with the same Love and Care for Aunt Eva. I really appreciate you all for what you did for her and us. I am happy she gets to move forward in the reunion with family. Love to you all, Karen & Doug Eskelson “Frederickson”

My first train ride. My first gourmet dinner. My payed return trip on the Grayhound bus from San Franciscso to Salt Lake City Utah. Yes Eve I thumbed a ride from Salt Lake City to San Francisco. You would not let me thumb back home I was only 15 I know you feared for my safety. Eve loved music plays family and friends. Charity and a true love of others along with being understanding and pleasent wow. Games like monopoly were played for pleasure and learning. Eve I learned how to buy houses rent and repair them because of you. Not much grousing but lots of learning from my sister. She was modest and thoughtful and always thinking of others. You loved the Gospel of Christ and lived the principles. Rest in Paridise with our loved ones our spirits will meet again. Love to you and our memories. Your brother Robert and my sweet wife Maryan Hansen

Aunt Eva/Eve, You have been such a special Aunt to me and so many nieces and nephews! And just like them,, you always made me feel loved and special, and like I was your favorite. I have so many fond memories of times spent with you. You looking after some of us while my mom was having the triplets. Christmases with you and Grandma Anna Hansen, many fun times in your home, you going through the Salt Lake Temple with me my first time, going to lunch with you at the lion house when you worked at the church office building, just to name a few. I loved your sense of humor and jokes and the brain teaser games and puzzles you always had around for us to try. You always listened so intently when we talked. I loved how you always said “isn’t that interesting!” For your entire life you were an amazing example of love and service. While I will truly miss you, I know it was your time to “pass on” to the other side. I know it was a wonderful reunion with your parents, sisters, brothers and so many loved ones! Please put in a good word for all of us, especially me, with the Big Guy! ;0) Love You! Michael Hansen

I already missed Aunt Eve even before her passing. Eve was such a joy and an absolute gift in my entire family's life. The years that my parents helped her were full of so many memories it's not even possible to share them all. Eve had a gift that most of us don't, and if we do, we have such a limited capacity of it. She had the gift of genuine care and compassion. No matter what, if you meant anything at all to her she always wanted the best for you and yours. My fondest memories of Eve all meld together, but I have to say you could always count on her engaging in meaningful conversations and would always celebrate or grieve with you. If you or your family were going through hard times she would also have the most helpful advice to encourage anyone to never give up. To those who shared a bond with Eve as strong, true, genuine, and authentic as the one me, my parents Jane and Darron, and my sister Isabella did then you already know how missed she is going to be in this world. You also know that you're going to have the best memories ever to reflect on. Keep sharing those stories. Aunt Eve may be gone, but her life was so full and it deserves to be shared with anyone willing to listen. Love you Aunt Eve. I know we hadn't seen each other for many years, but even in passing I know we both cared about how one another was doing. Thank you for everything you ever did for me and my family. We all love you so so much!
